

Town Clerk Home

Town Clerk

The town clerk has many responsibilities, including the following...

Read More

Benefits of Licensing Your Dog

New York State law requires that all owned dogs 4 months of age or older must be licensed. Dog owners may be fined for violation of this law. Licensing is an important element in animal control and the protection of the public health. Information about licensed dogs assists in the human medical...

Read More

Dog Control

If you cannot reach the dog control officer, Beth Arita at (203) 585-7422, please contact the Town Clerk's office at (914) 763-3511 or the Lewisboro Police Department at (914) 763-8903.

The Town's Dog Control is responsible for enforcing the Town's Dog Control Law. The law...

Read More

Freedom of Information/Records Access/Open Meetings Law

Freedom of Information/Records Access/Open Meetings Law

Under the Freedom of Information Law enacted in 1978, you have a right to be informed of the operation of your local government. With some exceptions noted below, all meetings of the Town boards and committees are open to the public...

Read More

Birth, Death, Marriage Records and Genealogical Search

The Town Clerk Janet Donohue and Deputy Town Clerk Jennifer Caviola serve as Registrar and Deputy Registrar of Vital Statistics. As such they are responsible for the filing of birth, death and burial certificates. Record of a birth, death or burial is kept in Lewisboro if the event actually...

Read More

View PDF